NEW YORK, Dec. 3.-The total sales for NEW 1000K, 180, 3.—The total sales for the two-hour session to-day at the Stock txehange were 191,975 shares. This total has made up mainly of transactions in New England, the Gould stocks, Rock sland, Whisky Trust and St Louis and pers. In the early trading there was con-iderable liquidation by those who were minent in the buying of yesterday. Under their efferings values gave way sharply, New England was especially prominent in the selling, and declined 1½ per cent. The rest of the list went down fractionally ex-cept the Goulders, which seemed to act tependently of the general market. They sere all strong, advencing from 1 to 1% or cent. After the first few minutes of rading the selling ceased, and all the stock been offered was quickly absorbed. Central was especially strong in hour, advancing 214 per cent The early decline in the general list was more than recovered by 11 o'clock. At that that last night's closing. In the the unfavorable bank stateing, but prices, however, in most cases, a slightly higher than yesterday's clos-

THE COTTON MARKETS. NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The receipts at the ports show an increased crop movement, being estimated at 38,000 bales, against 33,490 bales this day last week and 35,375 bales same day last year. The market continued active. Considerable liquidation by long holders and stop orders resulted in a break in values of 18@19 points. About haif an hour before the close the market suddenly turned stronger and prices jumped up 13/115 points, owing to active buying by local operators to cover their short sales made early this morning, stimulated sales made early this morning, stimulated by a contradiction of the report that the Georgia Legislature was in favor of the Anti-Option bill, and the close was firm. Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 9%; Orleans, 9-13-16; L. M., 9-3-16; G. O., 8%; gross receipts, 1,620 bales, exports, Continent, 1,170 bales; forwarded, 1,288 bales; sales, 5,691 bales; spinners, 91 bales; stock, 327,928 bales, Futures closed firm; sales, 260,000 bales; December, 9,1969,21; January, 9,2569,26; February, 9,3669,37; March, 9,4769,48; May, 9,6869,69; June, January, 9.2563.26; February, 9.35629.37; March, 9.4763.48; May, 9.6863.69; June, 9.7760.79; July, 9.8763.86; August, 9.936, 9.95. The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 4.064.377 bales, of which 2.653.677 bales are American, against 4.163.817 bales and 3.789.517 bales, respectively. tively, last year, Receipts at all interior towns for the week, 206,639 bales; receipts from plantations, 206,122 bales. Crop in sight, 3,566,087 bales, a decrease of amount in sight as compared with last year of 1,435,730 bales.

The opening transactions on the New York Cotton Exchange showed an advance of 5 to 6 points, owing to the unexpected strength at Liverpool, where the market closed at a net loss of only 2-64. Bearish features were the small demand for spot cotton at Liverpool and a report that the Georgia Legislature had passed resolutions favoring the passage of the Anti-Option bill by Congress. These reports caused a reaction, and the advance was wiped out and 10 points besides. Many selling orders for account of Southern firms were excited but here the elements which cited. Just before the close March, which had sold down from 9.47 to 9.28, advanced rapidly to 9.45 on very heavy transactions. An apparent scarcity of cotton just before the close advanced the whole market 2 to 6 points above yesterday's final figures on total sales of 250,000 bales. Port receints at the South for coming week are estimated at 250,000 bales to 260,000 bales, •gainst 296,000 onles in 1801. Spot sales In this market to-day, 5,091 bales. Market

JACKSON WARD. TWO SMALL DWELLINGS LOCATED THEREIN AT AUCTION.

On FRIDAY, December 9th, at 4 o'clock P. M., I will sell the two TWO-STORY, DETACHED FRAME DWELLINGS, situated at the southeast corner of St. Peter and Federal streets. corner of St. Peter and Federal streets. This corner will make an excellent stand for business, but will pay handsomely for dwellings. Those who have a smail sum to invest and want large returns from it should attend this sale, as this advertisement is not put in simply to patronize the newspaper, but because the owner wants to sell, and he will do so if he gets anything like a reasonable price for the property.
